Yes, a lot has happened since we talked. Our ORD folks are available the 11th and the 18th. There was a feeling of urgency at our HQ to get started on this so I talked with Randy to see if someone could fill in for you sooner than next week. He offered to sit in for you, along with your contractors. So it was decided to have a call this Friday to familiarize our folks on your work. That is happening tomorrow. I apologize that communication was not better. I assumed you would hear through TNC channels.

You mean tomorrow? I thought we had discussed doing this next week. Tomorrow will be difficult for me.

Hi Dave,
Sorry for the confusion. We had to work out who was on first. We are back to this Friday, the 11th at 11am Alaska Time. You should see an invitation from Palmer.
